

Title IX Compliance and Athletics – K-12 Training & Certification Agenda

This one-day session is designed for K-12 Athletics Directors, compliance officers, Title IX (and Deputy) Coordinators, coaches, trainers and other athletics support staff at the school or district level. It will include discussions of cases, and, time permitting, a case study. For a bio of the presenters, go to tngconsulting.com.

AGENDA

- Overview and history of Title IX and athletics
- The Three-Part Test for Accommodation of Interests
 - Counting Participants
 - Proportionality
 - Program Expansion
 - Full Accommodation/Unmet Need
- Levels of Competition
- Other Athletic Benefits and Opportunities
- Funding and Boosters
- Red Flags
- Sexual Misconduct & Hostile Environments
 - Understanding the three forms of Sexual Harassment
 - Sexual Harassment
 - Quid Pro Quo
 - Retaliation
- Unique challenges in Title IX and Athletics
- Managing Dating Relationships in Sport
- Reporting Responsibilities
 - Coaches, Trainers, Staff, Medical Staff
- Interim Measure and Actions under 2020 Title IX regulations
- Risk management
 - Social Media regulation
 - Communication between coaches and athletes
 - Travel considerations
 - Locker room behavior and meetings
 - Intersection with the Center for SafeSport
 - The Changing Law in these areas
- Q&A

NOTE: in 2020-21, a section on compliance in COVID-land will be added.