Join us for ATIXA’s 12th Annual Conference in Philadelphia, PA, this fall.

Attending the ATIXA Annual Conference allows you to engage with hundreds of leaders in Higher Education and K-12 spaces. Attendees are often educational leaders who play key roles in decision-making for faculty, staff, and students.

Find Your People

Discover how sponsorship and exhibiting can help you reach hundreds of leaders who play key roles in decision-making across the field of education. Exhibitors and sponsors can engage with conference attendees on-site at our morning breakfasts, afternoon snacks, receptions, and social events. Sponsors are featured on our conference homepage and marketing slideshow, which runs before each conference session. Upgrade your sponsorship to interact with our attendees on our mobile app, Whova! App sponsorship entitles you to banner ads on the app’s most visited screens, plus a virtual booth where you can display videos, photos, brochures, and handouts, and run live showcases. Gather leads within the app by searching attendee information beforehand, and use our post-event attendee roster to turn your conversations into conversions.

Calling for Exhibitors!

Participate as a conference exhibitor to speak face-to-face with our attendees and members. Exhibitors can set up a table where meals and snacks are served.
