Re: Nebraska Methodist College
OCR Case Number 07262222

Dear Lindsay Snipes,

The U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights (OCR), received a complaint against Nebraska Methodist College (the College) alleging the College did not make its Title IX training materials available on its public website. The College has voluntarily entered into a Resolution Agreement (Agreement) resolving the complaint. This decision is explained below.

OCR enforces Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), 20 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq., and its implementing regulation at 34 C.F.R. Part 106, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. As a recipient of federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education, the College is subject to Title IX, and to OCR's jurisdiction. Additional information about the laws OCR enforces is available on our website.

In response to the complaint, OCR investigated:

1. Whether the College made all materials used to train Title IX Coordinators, investigators, decision-makers, and any person who facilitates an informal resolution process publicly available on the University's website, as required by Title IX and 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(10)(i)(D), and

During the investigation, OCR reviewed the complaint provided by the Complainant, searched the website of the College, and spoke with the Vice President of Institutional Effectiveness & Compliance.

Legal Standard

The regulation implementing Title IX provides, at 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(10)(i)(D), that a recipient must publish on its website all materials used to train its Title IX Coordinators, investigators, decision-makers, and any person who facilitates an informal resolution process.

Summary of Preliminary Investigation

OCR reviewed the College's website and information the College provided. OCR could not find, nor could the College provide, evidence indicating that training materials were posted on its website. OCR determined that the College failed to publish on its website its Title IX training materials.

Analysis and Conclusion

OCR's investigation of the complaint raised concerns that the College has not made its Title IX training materials available on its website. Prior to the conclusion of OCR's investigation and pursuant to Section 302 of OCR's Case Processing Manual, the College expressed an interest in resolving this complaint and OCR determined that a voluntary resolution is appropriate. Accordingly, the College signed the enclosed Agreement which, when fully implemented, will address the allegation raised in the complaint. OCR will monitor the College's implementation of the Agreement until the College has fulfilled its terms.

This concludes OCR's investigation of the complaint. When OCR determines the College has fully implemented the terms of the Agreement, OCR will close this complaint. If the College fails to carry out the Agreement, OCR may resume investigating the complaint. OCR will not close the monitoring of the Agreement until OCR determines that the College has demonstrated compliance with all the terms of the Agreement and is in compliance with Title IX, and its implementing regulations, which were at issue in this complaint.

This letter sets forth OCR's determination in an individual OCR case. This letter is not a formal statement of OCR policy and should not be relied upon, cited, or construed as OCR policy. OCR's formal policy statements are approved by a duly authorized OCR official and made available to the public. Individuals who file complaints with OCR may have the right to file a private suit in federal court regardless of whether OCR finds a violation.

The College may not harass, coerce, intimidate, discriminate, or otherwise retaliate against an individual because that individual asserts a right or privilege under a law enforced by OCR or files a complaint, testifies, assists, or participates in a proceeding under a law enforced by OCR. Complaints alleging such retaliation may be filed with OCR.

Under the Freedom of Information Act, it may be necessary to release this document and related correspondence and records upon request. If OCR receives such a request, it will seek to protect, to the extent provided by law, personally identifiable information that, if released, could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
